Iconic event space in the heart of Indy

Owned and operated by the Indy Arts Council, the Indianapolis Artsgarden is a striking, seven-story glass and steel structure located in the heart of downtown Indianapolis. Since opening in 1996, it has served as an iconic venue offering 360-degree views of the city and hosting unforgettable private events, weddings, and community gatherings.

Indianapolis Artsgarden staff are available to provide event management, technical support, and security to help your event run smoothly.
